

News

- CAPE is now setting up a new interim executive Board as it transitions to become CAP Council for the Advancement of Professions. More in updates
- The CAPE Mentoring360 initiative held in March was a success!
- We'd like to thank all the mentees and mentors that came to the Mentoring360 event and participated.
- Another Mentoring360 session is being planned for early June so if anyone is interested please contact Wajeeha at gwareeha@capeinfo.ca.
- As you know the CAPE website now links to its YouTube, LinkedIn, Twitter and Facebook pages so make sure to check out, like and follow us!

Updates

As CAPE moves to include members of other regulated professions into its membership, the executive board also needs to include up to 15 representatives from these other professions. Consequently CAPE invites anyone interested in participating in the executive board of CAP to send in an expression of interest for these positions to gwareeha@capeinfo.ca

REMINDERS
